

Korean celadon baluster jar

Item number :002355

Price : 20 000.00 € euros

Condition report : Excellent condition.

Description :

Korean incised celadon glazed baluster jar, stoneware with bulbous high shoulder form, with four small strap handles, short neck, flared base, unglazed foot rim, and four incised tree peony plants on the exterior covered overall in a thick celadon glaze with a darker flash diagonally across the body, crackled and crazed in areas.

12-1/2 in. high x 8 in. in diameter. Weight: 7lbs. 7oz.

- Origin : Korea
- Culture, Dynasty, Period: Koryo Dynasty
- Date :
 - Early 12th Century
 - 12th Century
- Height (cm): 32

- Diameter (cm): 20
- Material: Glazed stoneware
- Provenance: Ex-collection: Margaret Miller White, Rancho Santa Fe
- Publications and exhibitions of the object: For similar examples see: Forman, The Ancient Art of Korea, p. 65. Gompertz, Celadon Wares, #25.

Contact us for more information : info@weart.com