

"Boro" Sake Strainers

Item number :1907195

Price : 600.00 € euros

Condition report : No repairs, no restorations.

Description :

Woven, embroidered and patched hemp, creating a bag like sack through which sake was strained. The "Boro" aesthetic was the ultimate practicality and all about not wasting anything. The innate sensibility of the Japanese farmers brought forth these amazing abstract compositions.

Dim : 22 x 9 inches

- Origin : Japan
- Date :

- 20th Century

- Height (cm): 79
- Width (cm): 29
- Material: Hemp
- Detailed description, inscriptions, signatures, stamps, marks:

Woven, embroidered and patched hemp, creating a bag like sack through which sake was strained. The “Boro” aesthetic was the ultimate practicality and all about not wasting anything. The innate sensibility of the Japanese farmers brought forth these amazing abstract compositions.

Dim : 22 x 9 inches

- Condition report: No repairs, no restorations.

Contact us for more information : info@weart.com